

40 Days of Prayer for America - Weekly Guide for Worship, Sunday School, Small groups & personal use (9/27 through 11/1)

Week of 9/27: Churches (you will pray for a few every week) - Pray for all churches and church leaders to be a vessel of healing and revival in America. Pray for your church to be vibrant, strong and influential in your community. Pray for unity within our churches and deep harmony between churches. Pray for religious liberty to be protected in our nation.

- Pray for these churches by name: First United Methodist Church, Goldthwaite (Pastor Marvin Ewertt); Goldthwaite Evangelism Center, U.P.C. (Pastor Robert Lingle); St. Peter's Catholic Church (Father Javier Toscano)

Week of 10/4: Families - Pray for families to commit to the permanence and purity of Biblical marriage, passing on a godly heritage through their children, serving one another in love, and restoring broken relationships. Pray for divine protection of the institution of the family in our country, especially from those who seek to destroy God's intended desires for the family.

- Pray for these churches by name: Western Heritage Cowboy Church (Pastor Russell Bristol); Fellowship Baptist Church (Pastor Stewart Farrell); Church of Christ, Goldthwaite (William Eudy, Minister)

Week of 10/11: Education – Pray for God's presence on our local school campuses. Ask that teachers, administrators and district employees will honor God's statutes, teach wisdom and understanding based on God's truths, protect our children and inspire them to discover their God-given calling. Pray for local school boards. Pray for colleges and universities, which have become centers for godless and immoral indoctrination. Pray for Christian students to stand firm in their faith.
